

SOUTH AFRICAN FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

NOTING that the first organized formation of football at National level was Established in 1892; that fragmentation in South African sport in general and football in particular, was caused by the policies of racial discrimination and apartheid; that the policies of racial discrimination and apartheid based on the ideology of white supremacy over people of colour created a situation of independent existence of the various football organizations against the wishes of the majority of footballers in the country.

ACKNOWLEDGING the meaningful role played by non-racial organizations and, in particular, the attempts to unify football in South Africa.

REALISING the urgent need to fulfill the historic task of unifying the different football organizations in preparation for a united, democratic, indivisible and non-racial South Africa.

RECOGNISING a non-racial society as on in which all people shall be equal before the law; there shall be no oppressive interference with the rights of individuals; in order to compete equally and fairly in football, all people shall have access to relevant, compulsory and equal education, adequate residential and recreational facilities in general and adequate housing in particular and a universal franchise system determined by the will of the people;

the principles of democracy, accountability and consultation shall be upheld all people shall enjoy freedom of association, freedom of land movement, freedom of domicile, freedom of ownership of land, freedom to participate fully in the economy of the country and share in its wealth and live in peace, harmony and comfort.

CONFIRMING this philosophy of non-racialism to be the guiding principle in the organization and in our endeavour to strive for unity, peace and harmony in sport in our country;

That the aforementioned social conditions are the fundamental requirements for the entry of South African sport into the international sporting community in general, and in respect of football in particular to the FEDERATION INTERNATIONALE de FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION (FIFA)

RESOLVING to constitute the members of the SOUTH AFRICAN SOCCER ASSOCIATION, SOUTH AFRICAN SOCCER FEDERATION, FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH AFRICA and the SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONAL FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION into an indissoluble single organization under the SOUTH AFRICAN FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION and under the constitution hereby established to promote and control Association Football in SOUTH AFRICA.

ARTICLE 13

- 13.1 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the election of office-bearers shall be by vote of delegates and office-bearers present at a Quadrennial Annual General Meeting of SAFA.
- 13.2 Only representatives of Members in good standing shall be eligible for election as an office bearer or member of the National Executive Committee.
- 13.3 Each delegate and office-bearer present at the election AGM shall have one vote in any election of office bearers, provided that no delegate shall be entitled to vote unless the Member which he/she represents is a Member in good standing.
- 13.4 Any Member in good standing shall be entitled to submit nominations for the President, the two Vice-Presidents other than the League Vice-President and the National List of candidates for election.
- 13.5 Only Regional Members shall be entitled to submit nominations from their Province to the Provincial List of candidates for election.
- 13.6 Sixty (60) days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting the Chief Executive Officer shall distribute nomination forms to Members per registered post.
- 13.7 Members shall submit the original nomination forms to SAFA's auditor such that they are received at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting. The closing date and time shall be specified in a circular distributed by the Chief Executive Officer with the nomination forms.
- 13.8 No nomination form will be accepted by SAFA unless:-
- 13.8.1 The nomination form is signed by the President/Chairperson and the Secretary of the Member submitting the nomination; and
- 13.8.2 The nominee has submitted to the auditor his signed acceptance of the nomination on the form provided for this purpose, or on a copy or facsimile thereof, and this signed acceptance has been received by the auditor at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting.
- 13.9 The onus shall be on the Member concerned to ensure that nominations and acceptances are received by the auditor on or before the closing date.
- 13.10 Within seven (7) days after the closing date for nominations, the auditor shall submit a list of those persons properly nominated to the Chief Executive Officer. The original nomination forms shall be retained by the auditor.

- 13.11 The Chief Executive Officer shall send the list of nominations as received from the auditor to all Members along with the agenda for the Annual General Meeting.
- 13.12 Prior to the commencement of the elections, the meeting shall elect an electoral officer and two other persons who are not candidates for office, to conduct the elections.
- 13.13 Should there be fewer nominations for a post than there are vacancies to be filled nominations may be made from the floor. In such event no nomination will be accepted unless the nominee in question is present at the Annual General Meeting and indicates his/her willingness to accept nomination.
- 13.14 The first person to be elected shall be the President. Should only one nomination be received the candidate shall be declared duly elected unless delegates drawn from at least four (4) members request a ballot. In such event, delegates shall vote either "for" or "against" the candidate. Should the candidate not poll a majority of the votes, fresh nominations shall be taken from the floor. Where more than one nomination is received, the election shall take place by simple majority vote. In the event of a tie, the outgoing President (or if he is a candidate, an outgoing Office Bearer nominated for this purpose by the outgoing National Executive Committee) shall have a casting vote in addition to his/her deliberative vote.
- 13.15 Following the election of the President, the two ordinary Vice-Presidents shall then be elected. Should only two nominations be received, the candidates shall be declared duly elected. Should more than two nominations for these positions be received, then such nominations will be determined by means of a ballot with the two candidates polling the most number of votes elected to the position of Vice-Presidents. In the event of the election not yielding two candidates who poll more votes than any of the other candidates,
- 13.15.1 if one candidate polled the highest number votes, s/he will be elected Vice-President and there will be a second ballot in respect of all candidates who polled the second highest number of votes. The second election will take place by plurality vote with the President having a casting vote in addition to his/her deliberative vote in the event of a tie;
- 13.15.2 if no single candidate polled the highest number of votes, there will be a second ballot in respect of all candidates who polled the highest number of votes, with the two candidates polling the highest number of votes elected to the position of Vice-President. If the second ballot does not yield two candidates who poll more votes than any of the other candidates, the President will have a casting vote or votes as the case may be in addition to his/her deliberative vote, provided that if there is any candidate who polled more votes than any of the remaining candidates in the second ballot, the President will be obliged to exercise one of his/her casting votes in favour of that candidate.

- 13.16 Following the election of the two ordinary Vice Presidents, the President shall announce the names of the League Vice President and the League members of the National Executive Committee.
- 13.17 Thereafter six (6) additional National Executive Members from the National List using a single round of voting, with the six (6) candidates pulling the highest number of votes being elected. Where only six (6) nominations are received, the nominated candidates shall be declared duly elected. Delegates may vote for a maximum of six (6) candidates, but may vote for less than six (6). In the event of a tie affecting the result of the election, the President shall exercise a casting vote or votes in addition to his/her deliberative vote.
- 13.18 Should any dispute relating to an election arise during or the meeting, the electoral officer shall rule thereon, and his/her ruling shall be final and may not be challenged by any candidate, delegate or Member.
- 13.19 Subject to the provisions of this Article, Office Bearers hold office until their successors have been elected at a Quadrennial Annual General Meeting.
- 13.20 A vacancy in any office of the National Executive Committee shall occur:-
- 13.20.1 upon the death or resignation of a member;
- 13.20.2 If a member is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the National Executive Committee without prior permission unless the National Executive Committee upon good cause being shown, otherwise decides;
- 13.20.3 If a member is found guilty of having conducted himself in any manner likely to prejudice the objects or activities of SAFA and/or whose conduct has the effect of bringing SAFA into disrepute;
- 13.21 Should the office of any member of the National Executive Committee become vacant, the remaining members of the National Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt a member in his place until the next Annual General Meeting provided that should the office of the President become vacant, the National Executive shall, at its next meeting, elect one of the two Vice-Presidents other than the League Vice President to act as President until the next Annual General Meeting.

- 13.22 At any Annual General Meeting which is not a Quadrennial Annual General Meeting, elections will be held to fill offices vacated during the previous year. Candidates for such elections may be nominated only in accordance with the nomination procedures of this Article. In each category of Office Bearer in respect of which there are vacancies, delegates may vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies with the required number of candidates who obtain the highest number of votes in the first round of voting being elected. In the event of a tie, the tie-break mechanisms set out in this Article for the relevant category of Office Bearer will apply.
- 13.23 An office bearer elected in accordance with Article 13.22 to fill a vacancy on the National Executive Committee holds office until the next Quadrennial Annual General Meeting.
- 13.24 The President and Chief Executive Officer shall not serve on the Executive body of any Member.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

ARTICLE 14

- 14.1 The Chief Executive Officer shall, by registered post or telefax, give all Members at least ninety (90) days advance notice of the date of the Annual General Meeting, which date shall, subject to Article 14.1, be determined by the National Executive Committee and shall ordinarily be a date in September.
- 14.2 If, by 30 June in any year, no date for an Annual General Meeting has been fixed by the National Executive Committee, until the date of the Annual General Meeting is fixed, any Member may by written notice to the Chief Executive Officer nominate a date for the Annual General Meeting between 100 and 120 days away, and the Chief Executive Officer shall convene the Annual General Meeting for the date nominated in the first such notice s/he receives.
- 14.3 Motions to an Annual General Meeting shall be submitted to the Chief Executive Officer of SAFA in writing per registered post and/or telefax not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such Annual General Meeting.
